ADVENTURESS SEEKS HERO'S RUIN

Romanticism is the keynote of George Kleiser's latest photo-dramatic success, "For Napoleon and France," which is the attraction at the Popular Theater this week, with matinee daily. It is based on historical events that occurred during the rule of the great Napoleon, and is presented with a dramatic power such as only the Italian school creates.

The martial atmosphere is intense, and the fortunes of the chief characters are cleverly interwoven with realistic spectacular battles that were fought during the Napoleonic wars. But the clashes of mighty armies, while enthralling the audience, do not hold its intense interest so completely as the romantic thread that is current throughout this absorbing photo-drama.

Fort Shafter Movies
AND CONCERT TONIGHT

Feature moving pictures, band concert and orchestral program insure splendid entertainment tonight at the Fort Shafter Aerodrome. The picture will be Charles E. Van Loan's thrilling story of early western days, "Buckshot John." Chief Musician Albert Jacobsen has arranged the following program for the band concert which will begin at 6:45 o'clock.

March—First Battalion Jacobsen
Overture—Tancrède Rossini
Duet Cornets—La Belle Creole.....

Cricket's Serenade Bendix
Francis Leigh, director of the orchestra, has also arranged an interesting program and all of the numbers with the exception of two will be played at the post for the first time.

Overture—Jubel Weber
Dance—Jack in the Box Allen
March—La Sorella Borel Clerc
Waltz—Española Waudtengel
Morocco—The Sunbeam Dance. Rolfe
Characteristic—Virginia Creeper.....

Selection—Baron Trenck Davis
Schottische—The Howl Owl. Boehnlein
Rag—Rubber Plant Rag Cobb
Two Step—Slippery Susan Grey
Caprice—Drifting Clouds Boehnlein
Intermezzo—My Pola Star Rolfe
Finale—The Teetotum March Morse

Sympathetically the spectators watch a sophisticated woman of the world, although of high degree and member of the French court, play with the heartstrings of a youthful soldier of France, whose heroism on the field of battle has won him honors, the praises of his country and the favor of Napoleon. Her subtle charms and artifices bring him to her feet. She plays with him as a cat does a mouse. When she has him on the point of being faithless to his country through disobedience of military orders, he is saved by his devoted sister.

The manner in which the adventure seeks to avenge herself upon the youth forms the balance of this wonderful story, which is replete with tense dramatic situations.

MUSICAL COMEDY

COMPANY COMING

The theatrical season for Honolulu is again about to begin. It is announced that the Raymond Teal Company will open an engagement of musical comedy for four weeks at the Bijou theater on July 31.

The company will stop on its way to the Orient, where an indefinite engagement has been scheduled.

There are about 20 people in the cast, including principals and chorus, and they will start the engagement with "Madame Sherry," "Mary's Lamb," or "The Time, the Place and the Girl." Several members of the company have played in Honolulu before.

ANOTHER VENIRE

IN MAKING CASE

The work of securing a jury to try the case of Fred Makino against members of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association, an action for damages in the sum of $50,000, was continued in Circuit Judge Stuart's court today.

The special venire made returnable yesterday morning was soon exhausted. This morning another special venire, composed of the following persons, was returned:

DEPUTY SHERIFF IS

RUNNING DOWN "TIP;"

STAYS ON MAINLAND

That Sheriff Rose has received information which may lead to the locating and arrest of Charles G. Bartlett, former president of the local brewery, and who is under indictment for frauds in connection with the brewery business, and J. J. McGrath, under indictment for second-degree robbery, is reported today.

Deputy Sheriff Asch is on the mainland on a vacation and had booked passage on the Matsonia, which arrived today. Asch was not on board and inquiry at the sheriff's office brought the information from the sheriff that he had received a "tip" that "two men wanted here," as he expressed it, "have been located."

The sheriff said he cabled the information to Asch and ordered the chief deputy to remain on the mainland until he has investigated the "tip." The sheriff refused to name the two men referred to.

CAME FOR VISIT, WILL

REMAIN FOR A FUNERAL

Rev. Oliver P. Emerson, brother of the late Dr. Nathaniel B. Emerson of Honolulu, arrived in Honolulu today from an ocean trip which started with a view of visiting another brother in Honolulu, Joseph S. Emerson, and which will terminate when the ashes of the late Dr. Emerson are brought to Honolulu and interred here in the hand of Dr. Emerson's birth.

Rev. Mr. Emerson and Mrs. Emerson were passengers on the Matsonia from San Francisco, intent on visiting with Joseph Emerson in Honolulu. On board the ship Rev. Mr. Emerson was informed by wireless of the death of Dr. Emerson on a steamer bound from Alaska to San Francisco. Dr. Emerson's son was on board that steamer when death came, and he will accompany the remains of his father on the trip to Honolulu. Rev. and Mrs. Emerson will remain here for the funeral.

"Are you the head of the family?"

"Sh! Yes; but don't tell my wife I said so."—Fun.
